LABOR'S PEACE COUNCIL HAS LOST MR. BUCHANAN

cause of Disagreement-Assails Administration.

Representative Frank Buchanan, of Iliois, organizer of the so-called Labor's as a strong indication that this organiza-tion, called into existence for the purpose of war munitions, is disintegrating. Buchanan recently criticized Secretary Tumulty and the President because they had been unable, on account of the Presi-dent's important engagements, to give him and a delegation from the peace council an audience with Mr. Wilson. In his letter to Secretary Tumulty Mr. Buchanan, who is a Democrat, refers to the administration as being in close comdustrial high-binders."
